RESTRICTED MATERIALS PERMIT A WORK BOOK

OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this training is to help you learn the laws, regulations, and protocols pertaining to Restricted Materials Permits and the related certification of private applicators.

At the completion of this training you will be able to:

- Understand defined words in the laws and regulations.
- Understand the development of the Restricted Materials Permit, Notice of Intent and Pre-application Inspection process as the functional equivalent of an Environmental Impact Report.
- Locate the section relevant to your Restricted Materials Permit questions.
- Interpret and apply the laws and regulations to a variety of situations.
- Use the laws, regulations and protocols to issue a Restricted Materials Permit.

PREPARATION

This training will be more effective if you take the time to become familiar with the layout of this work book and the Restricted Materials manual. We will run through some slides to give you an overview of laws and regulations which pertain to restricted materials and private applicator certification. You will complete some exercises which address specific problems areas.

You must bring your Pesticide Use Enforcement Manual with you as you will be using it in this training.

EXERCISE 3. WHAT IS WRONG WITH THIS PERMIT ?

On May 15, 1997 Virginia Limber applied for a Restricted Material permit in Your County. Limber is the manager at Loblolly City Golf Course. She wants to use strychnine to control seagulls which have been annoying the golfers and damaging seedling turf. She tells Conrad Fused, Your County biologist, that she will make the applications herself. Con issues her a job permit because he has never issued a permit for bird control and his supervisor is not in the office that day. Please check the permit on the next page and circle any errors.
